THE LAYMAN EVANGELIST. Mr. James E. Schoolfield Conducting a Revival at Trinity.

Mr. James E. Schoolfield, a prominent Methodist layman of Danville, is conducting a revival at Trinity Methodist church, in this city, and great crowds greet him every night, while the morning services are excellently attended. Mr. Schoolfield is an earnest, polished, and vigorous speaker, and while he is unsparing in enunciation of all "sin and uncleans his discourses are absolutely free from anything akin to slang or humorous jokes which cause some evangelists to e censured, He is evidently a consecrated man, and has for years given a very large measure of his time and talents to Gospel work, always refusing any pecuniary considera-tion for his labors. He reaches for the conscience and preaches Holy Ghost conversion and a life of holiness after conversion, and it can never be said of his work that it is effervescent or ephemeral. He seeks first and foremost to arouse the church mem-bership to a higher plane of zeal and Christian experience, and insists that whenever this is done sinners will flock to the standard of the cross. Indeed, his manner of preaching is intensely aggresmanner of preaching is intensity aggressive and incisive, giving no quarter to the enemy nor compromising the truth in the smallest degree. His labors everywhere have been attended with success, reviving the church membership and reclaiming hundreds of sinners. Mr. Turnbull Going to Durham, Information has been received in this city that Rev. L. B. Turnbull has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church, at Durham, N. C. Mr. Turnbull is well-known in this city, having served here as the pastor of the Old Market Presbyterian church, in which capacity he did excellent work. He is an earnest and strong preacher, a faithful pastor, and was a great favorite with his congregation. He gave up his church in this city on account of ill health, as the climate did not agree with Sheriff James Banty, of Tazewell county, brought down John Burks and William Brooks (both colored), to serve two years each for housebreaking.

Regular Trains.

The Chesapeake and Ohio train record for February shows that No. 1, the St. Louis limited, arrived at Cincinnati on time every day, except three. No. 3, on time every day, except three. No. 3, F. F. V. limited, arrived at Cincinnation time every day except two. Eastbound train No. 2 reached Richmond and Washington on time every day, and No. 4 every day except five. These exceptions are practically due to heavy snow sterms in the mountains.

A Forty-Mile Ride.

E. R. Swetnam, of Fairfax Station, Va., says: "A party came forty miles to my store for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and bought a dozen bottles. The remedy is a great favorite in this vicinity, and has performed some wonderful cures here." It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, and whooping cough, and is a favorite wherever known. For sale by Owens & Minor Drug Co., P. M. Staughter, E. P. Reeves & Co., and H. G. DANGER JUST AHEAD.

A Prominent Professor Speaks About the Threatening Things Abroad at This Time of the Year.

of the Year.

"It is surprising how many people are suffering to-day from so-called coughs, coids, and influenza."

The remark was made by a very prominent professor, connected with one of the leading New York nospitals. Continuing, he said:

"It is not these things that are troubling people, but it is an advanced form of our oid enemy, the grip. People feel out of sorts, sneeze, have pains in the muscles and benes, have no appetite, lose all interest in the world, and wonder what is the matter. It is the grip; nothing clise.

is the matter. It is the grip; nothing eise.

"Now, all such symptoms need to have prompt treatment." The attack must be met and repelled at once, or it is certain to run into something serious. I know of but one way to certainly avoid these troubles which are now so common, and that is, to immediately counteract them by using a good, pure, strong stimulant. Nothing of the ordinary kind, but something pure and scientific. For this purpose nothing has ever equalled Duffy's Pure Mait Whisky, which is acknowledged to-day by physicians and scientific people to be the only pure, medicinal malt whisky upon the market."

The words of the professor are true, and they carry a wonderful meaning to many men and women who are suffering with the first symptoms of grip, or else grip in its advanced stages. For all such people we oner a word of advice: which is to take the best means to overcome these troubles, and do not permit any dealer to swerve you from your purpose to have that which has proven itself by years of use to be the best and purest stimulant in the world.
